

Anchors Ahoy!

Spring is in the Air!!

After what seems like the longest winter on record (I know it isn't quite over yet!) we eventually had a little taste of being able to 'play out' and enjoy the fresh air. What a difference it makes to wake up to the sun shining and no wind! The boys couldn't be tempted out though, until they had watched the Rugby Six Nations England v France match with Mr. 'M'.

New Boarders for Anchor

We welcomed Lina to the house last Monday and she has amazed us all with her cheerful and positive nature. Lina comes to us from China, together with her older sister Lucy, who is boarding in Luggard Girls. Lina's English is already quite good so we're sure it won't be long before she moves to main school (No more Saturday morning lessons then Lina!)

Natalie arrives today from Germany and will join our yr.8 classes. Everyone is buzzing about the prospect of some extra help with their German homework!! We hope both girls will really enjoy being part of Anchor House.

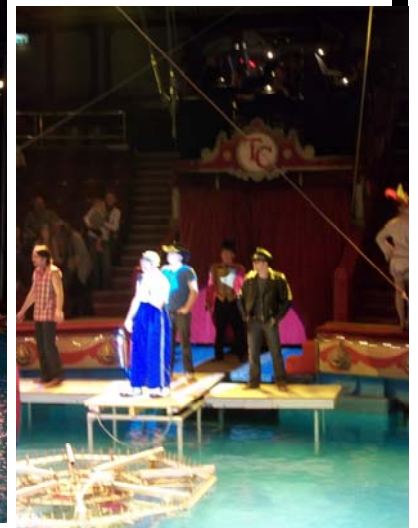

Anchors at play and away!

Our first weekend for this half term and what a great time we've had together; there were puzzles, games, swimming, movies & hot dogs arts & crafts, fives and lots of fresh air, finished off with a visit to Blackpool Tower's Carnival Circus (and Jungle Jim's!!)

. Armed with my new camera (at last I hear you say!) I have tried to capture as many of these activities as possible
