

Dear Parents/Guardians,

My tutors and I have decided to take the boys of Spread Eagle to London on the 9th through 11th March 2012.

The plan is to have a time away from school and to experience the culture and environment that is such a major part of the capital city of our country.

The cost of the trip will be a very reasonable £135 and includes:

1. Executive coach from Rossall to London and return
2. Bed and Breakfast at a central quality London establishment. All rooms will have ensuite facilities
3. Wembley Tour – which will include seeing England’s changing rooms, the players’ warm up zone, VIP reception area, the Royal Box, dugouts, the post-match interview area, press conference room, treatment rooms and the Bobby Moore Statue. The boys will also get an opportunity to ‘lift the cup’!
4. Sightseeing etc.

If the majority of boys would like to go to the musical ‘We will rock you’ we can arrange to do so although that will entail an additional cost of £44 for good seats on a Saturday evening.

As we are using school travel experts NST all aspects of the trip will be risk assessed by a combination of their input that is subject to a Safety Management System that complies with the DfE recommendations and our own procedures. The cost includes travel insurance.

For your convenience the cost can be put on your son’s school account and will be shown on the Summer Term’s invoice.

We hope you will allow your son to participate and would request you either confirm by email to i.mccleary@rossall.org.uk or by signing the attached agreement form and returning to Spread Eagle House.

Yours sincerely,

Ian McCleary (Houseparent)
